

Western Outside Sales Representative

The West Coast Sales Representative will be responsible for generating and fulfilling sales with existing clients and developing new opportunities with external customers. The Outside Sales Representatives will also assist in team development and growth strategies for the unit as well as be focused on maintaining and building relationships. Work out of home office, and must reside within the Western territory (include WA, OR, ID, CA, NV, UT, AZ, AK & HI), located near major airports for travel purposes.

Responsibilities:

- Scheduling appointments to review product needs of current external customers and determine other opportunities
- Generating and developing new business accounts to be able to increase sales, through cold calling or other means
- Serve as a strategic partner to customers in the selection of products which supports marketing plans and not simply be an order taker
- Become knowledgeable on supplier product offerings and keep up to date on new products
- Maintain accurate records, including expense reports and quotes.
- Create proposals to potential clients
- Maintain professionalism, diplomacy, understanding, and courtesy to represent the organization with a great reputation
- Partner with inside sales representative to ensure efficient unit operations.
- Willing to travel 50%-60%

Qualifications:

- Minimum 3 years outside sales experience
- Bachelor's Degree
- Strong written and verbal communication skills. Must be a good listener
- Proficient in Microsoft Word, Power Point, and Excel
- Competent in financial management and budgeting
- Strong self-management skills are required. Must be highly motivated. Able to create own plans of action, prioritize work activities, and manage own activity independently to deliver results on schedule and with limited supervision or direction
- Strong relationship building skills are required. Able to build and maintain lasting relationship with customers and suppliers
- Customer service oriented. Must commit to providing excellent customer service to achieve high level of satisfaction
- Creative & Strategic. Able to assist in developing new product offerings and marketing ideas

Please submit resumes to careers@aakronline.com.