

Increase Sales Time and Your Income

Hello, if you sell promotional or printed products and you want to earn more money, we'd like to speak with you. If you're considering going into business for yourself, we'd also like to speak with you. And, if you have an existing distributor company and want us to handle it for you, we'd like to speak with you.

Consider working with Hometown Hospitality Supplies and realize these immediate benefits:

- 50+% of net margin on every order
- No extra fees
- Dedicated customer service person
- Phone calls and client communications are handled for you
- Product searches and presentations are performed by an experienced representative
- End-column pricing from 150+ primary industry suppliers
- Client proposals, sales orders, acknowledgements, order entry, all handled for you
- Reliable suppliers for screen printing, direct-to-garment printing, and embroidery
- Order tracking to insure in-hands dates are met, every order
- Vendors paid on time, every time
- No accounts receivable collections
- A professionally designed website including product searches, and social media posts
- No sales tax collections, payments or reporting
- Sales collateral, business cards provided at no charge

Why should you join our team?

- We have significant print and promotional product experience
- We'll make you look like a rock star with your clients
- Most importantly, we provide you with extra selling time, so you can increase your income.

If you want to grow your book of business, significantly increase your income, and become financially secure, please don't hesitate to contact us. We're here to help you. We're only looking for 20 partners. So, don't put this off or it will be too late.

Interested parties please email us at HR@HometownSupplies.com.